LEARN ABOUT NORTHERN NEVADA ECONOMICS FROM BUSINESS OWNERS

Join us for an evening with Chamber of Commerce Chief Executive Officer, Ann Silver, and two local business owners who will discuss the ups and downs of owning a business in Northern Nevada.

Shawna Janfada, started and is currently running Shawna's Cheeseboard, specializing beautiful grazing tables and signature charcuterie boards for weddings, corporate events and private gatherings. Through word of mouth, she has built a loyal client base. As a busy mother of a young child, her business allows her flexibility as well as time to enjoy motherhood. She gives back to the community often. She was recently named a Top 3 finalist for Best of Reno in the catering category.

Jarod Arreguini is the owner and CEO of JAM Entertainment, a Reno-Tahoe based entertainment company serving weddings, corporate events, and community celebrations. He has a passion for bringing people together while creating opportunities for his team and local community. He is deeply involved in the Reno business community and believes small businesses play a vital role in shaping the culture, energy and economic strength of this region. JAM Entertainment has earned respect as a brand known for professionalism.
